(f) REPORT ON REVIEW.—

(1) SUBMISSION.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 21 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Task Force established under subsection (g), in regular consultation with the Peer Review Group established under subsection (h), shall submit a report to the appropriate congressional committees that describes the findings of the Review.

(B) PUBLICATION.—The Secretary of State shall publish the report described in subparagraph (A) on the internet website of the Department of State not later than 15 days after the date on which the report is submitted to the appropriate congressional committees.

(2) METHODOLOGY.—

(A) USE OF CRITERIA.—The Task Force shall establish an analytical framework and assessment scorecard for the Review using the criteria set forth in paragraph (3).

(B) CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS.—

(i) SUBMISSION OF METHODOLOGY.—Not later than 90 days after the appointments to the Peer Review Group are made pursuant to subsection (h)(2), the Task Force shall submit the methodology for the Review to the appropriate congressional committees.

(ii) CONSIDERATION OF CONGRESSIONAL VIEWS.—The Task Force may not proceed with the Review until 30 days after the methodology to the appropriate congressional committees, taking into consideration the views of the Chairmen and Ranking Members of each of the appropriate congressional committees.

(C) PUBLICATION OF CRITERIA AND METHODOLOGY.—The Secretary of State shall publish the final criteria and methodology for the Review on the internet website of the Department of State not later than 60 days after submitting the proposed methodology to the appropriate congressional committees pursuant to subparagraph (B)(i).

(3) ASSESSMENT CRITERIA.—The assessment scorecard shall include the following criteria:

(A) RELATIONSHIP OF STATED GOALS TO ACTUAL RESULTS.—The extent to which the stated mission, goals, and objectives of the entity have been achieved during the review period, including—

(i) an identification of the stated mission, goals, and objectives of each entity;

(ii) an evaluation of the extent to which the entity met its stated implementation timelines and achieved declared results; and

(iii) an evaluation of whether the entity optimizes resources to achieve the stated mission, goals, and objectives of the entity.

(B) RESPONSIBLE MANAGEMENT.—The extent to which management of the entity follows best management practices, including—

(i) an evaluation of the ratio of management and administrative expenses to program expenses, including an evaluation of entity resources spent on nonprogrammatic expenses;

(ii) an evaluation of program expense growth, including a comparison of the annual growth of program expenses to the annual growth of management and administrative expenses; and

(iii) an evaluation of whether the entity has established appropriate levels of senior management compensation.

(C) ACCOUNTABILITY AND TRANSPARENCY.—The extent to which the policies and procedures of the entity follow best practices of accountability and transparency, taking into consideration credible reporting regarding unauthorized conversion or diversion of entity resources, and including an evaluation of whether the entity has—

(i) established and enforced—

(I) appropriate auditing procedures;

(II) appropriate rules to reduce the risk of conflicts of interest among the senior leadership of the entity; and

(III) appropriate whistleblower policies;

(ii) established and maintained—

(I) appropriate records retention policies and guidelines;

(II) best practices with respect to transparency and public disclosure; and

(III) best practices with respect to disclosure of the compensation of senior leadership officials.

(D) ALIGNMENT WITH UNITED STATES FOREIGN POLICY OBJECTIVES.—The extent to which the policies and practices of the entity align with relevant United States foreign policy objectives, including an evaluation of—

(i) the entity's stated mission, goals, and objectives in comparison to relevant United States foreign policy objectives;

(ii) any significant divergence between the actions of the entity and relevant United States foreign policy objectives; and

(iii) whether continued participation by the United States in the entity contributes a net benefit towards achieving relevant United States foreign policy objectives, including the reasons for such conclusion.

(E) MULTILATERAL APPROACH COMPARED TO BILATERAL APPROACH.—The extent to which pursuing relevant United States foreign policy objectives through a multilateral approach is effective and cost-efficient compared to, or complementary to, a bilateral approach, including an evaluation of—

(i) whether relevant United States foreign policy objectives are effectively pursued through the entity, compared to existing or potential bilateral approaches, including the criteria used in the evaluation; and

(ii) whether relevant United States foreign policy objectives are pursued on a cost-effective basis through the entity, including the amount of funding leveraged from non-United States Government sources, compared to existing or potential bilateral approaches.

(F) REDUNDANCIES AND OVERLAP.—The extent to which the mission, goals, and objectives of the entity overlap with, or complement, the mission, goals, objectives, and programs of other multilateral institutions to which the United States Government contributes voluntary or assessed funding, whether cash or in-kind, including—

(i) a comparison of the extent to which relevant United States foreign policy objectives are effectively pursued on a cost-effective basis through each of the overlapping entities; and

(ii) whether continued participation in each entity contributes a benefit towards achieving United States foreign policy objectives.

(g) UNITED STATES MULTILATERAL REVIEW TASK FORCE.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—The President shall establish an interagency Multilateral Review Task Force (referred to in this section as the “Task Force”) to review and assess United States participation in multilateral entities identified in subsection (e) and to develop and submit the report required under subsection (f) to the appropriate congressional committees.

(2) LEADERSHIP.—The Task Force shall be chaired by the Secretary of State, who may delegate his or her responsibilities under this section to an appropriate senior Senate-confirmed Department of State official.

(3) MEMBERSHIP.—The President may appoint to the interagency Task Force senior Senate-confirmed officials from the Department of State, the Department of the Treasury, the United States Agency for International Development, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of Energy, and any other relevant executive branch department or agency.

(4) CONSULTATION.—In preparing the report under subsection (f), including the initial review of methodology, the Task Force shall consult regularly with the Peer Review Group established under subsection (h).

(h) UNITED STATES MULTILATERAL AID REVIEW PEER REVIEW GROUP.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT.—There is established the United States Multilateral Aid Review Peer Review Group (referred to in this section as the “Peer Review Group”).
